June 30, 2019

A Weekly Newsletter of Nu'uana Congregational Church

In Loving Memory

We are saddened by the death of Julia Nakamura, who passed away in Japan on June 14, 2019. She is survived by daughter Donnie Ann (Ricky) Wong, sons Warren (Michele) and Ross, four grandchildren Rachel, Deanna, Taylor, and Jonah, and sister May (Kay) Muranaka. A celebration of life service is scheduled for 10 a.m. on July 13, 2019 at Nu'uana Congregational Church. Visitation begins at 9:00 a.m. Casual attire and no flowers, please.

Wednesday Evening Book Study

Inspired by Rachel Held Evans is an accessible and insightful book and is the choice for the Wednesday evening study group. Evans, who died suddenly recently, was an Episcopalian priest in Texas. A former Southern Baptist, she reveals how she has come to understand the Bible, moving from a literal reading of scripture to a more open grasp of its meaning. She writes in an easy-to-understand, often funny, style that can be appreciated by both beginners and more sophisticated readers.

The Wednesday study group is open to anyone, members and friends alike. We meet for dinner at 5:30 p.m. and begin the study afterwards. We need to order copies of the book and so will need to know of your interest. We will begin study of the Evans book mid-July so please let Paula know of your interest and order your copy of the book ($10) with her (or purchase it on your own). In any case, let her know by June 30.
